

Decorative Papers & Book Structures

Intensive Workshop Jackie Hefty

Create a myriad of decorative papers on Saturday using new or tried-and-true techniques; learn, share and expand your experiences. On Sunday we use these gems, with all their unique characteristics and slight imperfections, to make several one-of-a-kind books. Minimal supplies allow you to continue at home. No experience necessary. Sat/Sun Sept 28, 29 10 am - 4:30 pm $130/$20 materials

Supply List (Bring your own) Note: All supplies are suggestions. Students may make substitutions.

- Comfortable shoes and clothing
- Smock, apron or old shirt to protect clothing
- Rubber gloves as preferred

Decorative Papers Supplies: Day 1 supply needs: assortment of papers of your choosing.

White, Off-white, Cream, Black or other solid color card stock, card making/scrap booking papers will work well for most techniques. Bring what you have, but do take color into consideration. Children's construction papers are not recommended as they fade quickly and some may bleed color when wet.

Individual choices of larger format papers may include; Canson Mi-Tientes papers, (assortment of colors available) Arches Cover, Rives Hwt, Masa, Mohawk Superfine, and Japanese papers; mulberry, kitikotta, sekishu – do not recommend those that look like lace, they may not hold up under some techniques. Any additional miscellaneous papers based on personal preferences. Paper bags or brown package paper rolls work well. Smoother papers work better than highly textured or rough.
